

Hmong Alaska Traditional New Year Celebration

The following clauses and statements are contracts and commitments for the pageants and princes charming who becomes the winner.

- a. The pageants and princes should be conducted with good manners and respect each other.
- b. The pageants and princes should never comment each other through any social media in regard of rumor or damage reputation.
- c. The pageant's winner is willing to donate her times and effort to help the Hmong Center of Alaska, Inc. and community when needed.
- d. The pageant and prince that becomes the winner needs to keep single for the entire year to commit his and her duties and responsibilities.
- e. The Hmong Center of Alaska, Inc. will award for $1,500.00 to the pageant's winner. The Hmong Center will hold for $500.00 to the end of the year after she has completed her tasks and commitment.
- f. The Hmong Center of Alaska, Inc. will award $500.00 to the prince's winner.
- g. If the winner break this regulation or married prior to complete her commitment, the Hmong Center of Alaska Inc. will not pay the holding money of $500.00 to her.
- h. After the winner has completed her commitment and conduct of crowning to the new Hmong Alaska's pageant, she will receive the rest of $500.00.
- i. The winner is willing to donate his or her times to help the Hmong Center of Alaska, Inc. in regard of fund raising, community involvement, and volunteer for another organization if needed.
- j. The winner has the responsibility to teach and train the new contestants in the next following year.

I, _____ as the prince and pageant, I acknowledge and agree to comply with the above commitments and regulation.

Pageant signature	Date	Guardian signature	Date
New Year Chair	Date	President	Date